NEW EP!

brave new girl

if the singing in your head is in stereo and you'd rather watch your dreams than the video and if love has made you loco you're a brave new girl its assorted little games of show and tell and the big boys are giving you the hard sell you could throw it all to hell and be a brave new girl no its not a new dance not a new drug not a new romance aw come on, take a stance if you wanna be strong and you don't belong and you won't behave then you'd better be brave because you're only as strong as you think you are and there is nothing you do that don't leave a scar when you know you've gone too far you'll be a brave new girl in the strange new world of my imagining its the logical ones that are maddening and the mad ones hear the singing of the brave new girls America I sing of thee
I like to live in the land of the free There's nothing wrong with me
if you wanna be strong and you don't belong and you can't behave, you'd better be a brave new girl
